

Commonwealth Essay Competition -2024

Participants Details – Senior

No	Name	Category	Class	Date of Birth	Total Word	Mobile no	Essay Topic
1	Yash Morshed Aumi	Senior	10	19-06-2009	1042	01733069191	1. "It's worth remembering that it is often the small steps, not the giant leaps, that bring about the most lasting change." – Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. What small steps can you take to help tackle the climate crisis?
2	Karim Al Shafin	Senior	10	12-8-2009	443	01940113399	2. Write a speech highlighting what you think is the most challenging issue facing the world today, and how Commonwealth values can be used to solve it.
3	Md Nahid Hasan Harun	Senior	10	18/03/2009	477	01887809262	1. "It's worth remembering that it is often the small steps, not the giant leaps, that bring about the most lasting change." – Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. What small steps can you take to help tackle the climate crisis?
4	Most Mohona Akter	Senior	10	06-05-2008	528	01747549474	2. Write a speech highlighting what you think is the most challenging issue facing the world today, and how Commonwealth values can be used to solve it.
5	DHRUBO ROY	Senior	9	19-03-2010	679	01313296063	2. Write a speech highlighting what you think is the most challenging issue facing the world today, and how Commonwealth values can be used to solve it.
6	Abyaj Ajbab Abir	Senior	10	12/12/2009	313	01724033523	2. Write a speech highlighting what you think is the most challenging issue facing the world today, and how Commonwealth values can be used to solve it.
7	Mst. Nushrat Jahan Nuba	Senior	8	10-01-2010	416	01734577336	2. Write a speech highlighting what you think is the most challenging issue facing the world today, and how Commonwealth values can be used to solve it.
8	MD. Tanjean Al Nirjon	Senior	8	10/03/2010	789	01833896103	1. "It's worth remembering that it is often the small steps, not the giant leaps, that bring about the most lasting change." – Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. What small steps can you take to help tackle the climate crisis?
9	MD. Noor Alam Samin	Senior	10	13-12-2008	289	01773947466	2. Write a speech highlighting what you think is the most challenging issue facing the world today, and how Commonwealth values can be used to solve it.